The Trussell Trust began in Bulgaria. It now supports a nationwide network of food banks and provides emergency food and support to people locked in poverty. The Trussell Trust also campaigns for change to end the need for food banks in the UK.

In 2000, Paddy received a call from a mother who was struggling to feed her children. Paddy started Salisbury Food Bank in his garden shed and garage providing three days of food for those in crisis.

The food bank model spread through church networks, inspired by Matthew's Gospel. "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink."

FAMOUS PEOPLE

Paddy and Carol Henderson founded the Trussell Trust with money left by Carol's mother, Betty Trussell.
