WALT: To use the retrieval viper to answer questions.

The next morning, just as Ra the Sun was climbing into the sky, Rhodopis followed the servant girls to the riverbank. Kipa wore a necklace of blue beads. Bracelets jingled on the wrists of the second. The third had tied a many-colored sash about her waist. Although Rhodopis wore a plain tunic, on her feet were the rose-red slippers. Perhaps they will let me come along to see Pharoah after all, she thought. But the three servant girls poled their raft around the bend in the river without giving Rhodopis a backward glance.

1. Where did Rhodopis follow the servant girls to?

2. What colour were Kipa's beads?

3. What was the second servant girl wearing?

4. How did the author describe Rhodopis' tunic?

5. What were the three servant girls travelling on across the river?
