Genre features: Recounts
Year 1	Year 2
My recount contains a scene-setting opening	My recount contains a clear introduction
I recounted events in chronological order	I used time conjunctions and adverbials
I used time conjunctions and adverbials	I used the past tense
I used the past tense	I wrote in the first person
I used details to bring events to life	I clearly described what has happened
I used specific names of people, places, objects	I recounted events in chronological order
I recounted incidents of interest/amusement	I used exclamation sentences appropriately
I wrote as if I was 'telling a story' of what	I used coordinating and subordinating
happened	conjunctions
I ended with comments on events
Year 3	Year 4
My recount includes an introduction	My recount includes an introduction
I used time adverbials	I used time adverbials
I wrote in the past tense and the first person	I wrote in the past tense and the first person
I clearly described what has happened	I clearly described what has happened
I wrote in chronological order	I wrote in chronological order
I included the present perfect tense to place	I included the present perfect tense to place events in time (This week we have) on at least	events in time (This week we have) one occasion	I added details for interest
I ended my recount with a closing statement	I ended my recount with a closing statement
Year 5	Year 6
My recount includes an introduction	My recount includes an introduction which clearly
I included time conjunctions	identifies what the reader will learn about
I included illustrations (if helpful)	I used time adverbials and other appropriate
I included essential words	adverbials
I used the past tense	I have written in the past tense
I used appropriate style and tone for the reader	I wrote in the first or third person
I made strong vocabulary choices	I clearly described what happened
I used present perfect tense to place events in	I recounted events in a clear chronological order time (This week we have)	I used present perfect tense to place events in I showed chronological order	time (This week we have)
I wrote in the first or third person	I included relative clauses to add further detail
I included a closing statement	I ended my recount with a closing statement

Year 5 and Year 6: Biographies

I have used a rhetorical question to hook the reader

My opening statement introduces the subject

My first paragraph summarises the main events of the person's life

I have used third person pronouns

I have written in the past tense

I included time adverbials to link ideas and dates linked to key events

I have used the passive voice to make the writing more formal

My writing is about key events in the person's life, which are ordered chronologically

I have used at least three different ways of linking sentences

My writing might include direct and indirect speech and quotes from other sources

My final paragraph includes something about the person's:

- o main achievements
- personality
- o how he/she will be remembered