

SIGNIFICANT MUSICAL ERA COMPOSER

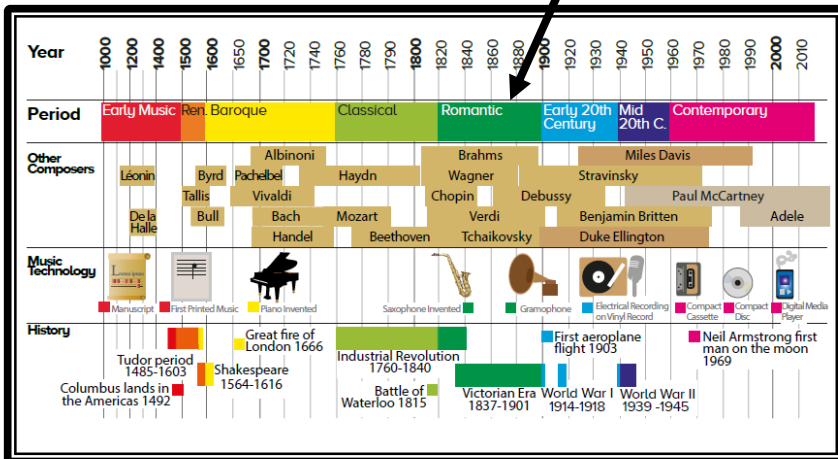

Frederick Chopin (1810-1849)

A leading Polish composer in the Victorian era. He was part of the Romantic genre. All of his compositions included the piano.

Other Romantic Era composers
Hector Berlioz (1803-69)
Robert Schuman (1810-56)
Franz List (1811-86)

The artists, poets and musicians of the Romantic period were united by their determination to use their art to convey emotion or provoke an emotional response from audiences.

Key Knowledge and Understanding

The power in your singing voice comes from your breath so it is important to use your diaphragm.

Music Hall was a popular form of entertainment in the Victorian era. Many of the songs performed were comedic and referred to everyday life. The music halls would have been noisy, rowdy places.

Folk music were a part of the working day..

To make a great sound, each singer needs to blend with the other singers, so that no one voice sticks out.

Key Vocabulary

Definition

Timbre

What makes a particular musical instrument or human voice have a different sound from another, even when they play or sing the same note

Texture

Texture is the mixing and layering of sounds. It makes the music more interesting to listen to.

Structure

The order of the music

Ensemble

Playing or singing in a group

Soundscape

A collection of sounds from an environment layered for atmosphere/effect

Lyric

Lyrics are words that make up a song usually consisting of verses and choruses.

Melody

The tune, made up of high and low pitched notes played/sung one after the other.

MUSIC OF THE VICTORIAN ERA

To make a great sound, each singer needs to blend with the other singers, so that no one voice sticks out.