

Key Knowledge and Understanding
Song structure is important because it organizes our songs.
When composing think about the role of each instrument – what are they adding to the piece. You don't need to have every instrument to play all the time.
If you use the pentatonic scale it is very difficult to produce something that won't work musically.

EDM (Electronic Dance Music) is a musical genre that has four main sub genres- trance, house, techno and dubstep that emerged in the mid 1980s
